Online Competition Series II
Theme: Social Awareness

Topic: Don't Ask Children to Take TOOL
Instead Send Them to SCHOOL

“A Child Is Meant To Learn Not To Earn”

Every child is a fulgent star for the country. The child today will be a leader tomorrow. The government has been taking various pro-active measures to tackle the problem of Child Labour. However, considering the magnitude and extent of the problem, it requires concerted efforts from all of us to make a dent in the problem.

It concerns all of us!

MBS SPA is organizing an online social awareness campaign as Placard Making on the World Day against Child labour. All participants will be required to make a placard with a quote/sketch (Against child labour) written on them, the student requires to click a picture holding the placard and send the same for awareness campaign.

The event is aimed to spread social awareness amongst our surroundings and # SAY NO TO CHILD LABOUR. The objective of the event is committed to the eradication of child labour through a process building progressive social change. Also, No child should be exploited instead each child should be educated to shape their future.
